

SCHWEIGER VINEYARDS

2023 PINOT NOIR

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

Opens with an aromatic tapestry of bing cherry, raspberry preserves, and soft vanilla, underscored by whispers of toasted oak and wet forest floor. Its velvety tannins glide into a moderate-weight mid-palate, culminating in a layered finish of dried cranberries and hibiscus, woven with evolved tannins.

PAIRING IDEAS

This expressive, nuanced wine is a sublime match for roasted duck with cherry glaze, herb-crusted turkey, or pork chops with a soy-ginger marinade.
